How Your Participation Helps the American Red Cross

As one of the most anticipated fundraising events for the Greater Houston Chapter of American Red Cross, the Red Jacket Fall Golf Classic, raises awareness, friends and funds to respond to disasters in our community and beyond, when and where needed. This tournament also helps support the men and women of the military and their families. Funds raised are transformed into services delivered every day in our community.

Tom Fazio Championship Course

Tom Fazio doesn't believe in designing Signature Holes...just Signature Courses. The Fazio Course at Carlton Woods has been recognized as the "Best New Private Course in Texas" and the "#3 Best New Private Course in the U.S." Resting atop 7,358 yards of rolling hillsides on the bluffs of Spring Creek, the Fazio Course offers a thrill ride of dramatic slopes and subtle undulations.

As a Tournament Sponsor You Have an Opportunity to:

- Network with local business and government leaders
- Interact with clients by including them in your foursome; express appreciation for their business
- Reward top-performing employees by including them in foursomes
- Help people prevent, prepare for and respond to life-threatening emergencies
- Support the men and women of the military and their families

Silent Auction

In conjunction with the Red Jacket Golf Tournament, a silent auction will be held to benefit your American Red Cross. You will find wonderful packages to enjoy and share with your friends and family.
